“MAY 2026”

Well April has been a very tough month for us with Elaine's sister passing away the 31st of March. I now have seen first-hand how some families handle their inheritance, and this case isn't very pretty! I have been involved in trying to keep this civilized as there is a Trust and Will but the executor is really causing problems. Then her one son's, son, came to live with her sister unannounced and that created even more problems.

I finally got the son's issue resolved and now onto the next problem! So, neither one of us has been sleeping very well lately but hope things are starting to calm down.

I don't have much to share regarding Corvette stuff this month and I haven't even driven the Vette in several weeks! But one item regarding our Corvette Club, did everyone see Barbara Renna and Gordie Woo, listed in Memoriam in the Blue Bars, Spring 2026? It was nice seeing them being thought of.

So that's all I have for this month and looking forward seeing everyone on the 5th.

Thanks,
Dan Flanigan, President

Thanks,

April Event Recap:

Hello Corvette West members, if you are reading this, we are all enjoying another day on the green side of the grass. I'm writing this from my driveway so I can have access to secure Wi-Fi. We have been forced to vacate our home as it has been invaded by termites. My house is under a tent, and all my food and anything else I don't want to be exposed to poisonous gas is double bagged in plastic. Needless to say, we've been a little busy.

Editor's Note: Everybody had a great time and former Corvettes West members Doug and Jackie Lyon were in town and able to join us. It's always a good time to be with other "Corvetters". April was Monty's Choice went well, great BBQ and even better company, truly a great time.

May Event: Sherman's Deli & Bakery

For May we are going to Sherman's Deli & Bakery 401 E. Tahquitz Way, Palm Springs, Ca. 92262. We will meet at Starbucks Yucaipa, 31515 Yucaipa Bl. 92399, 9:00am Thursday May 21st. We will leave Starbucks approximately 9:30 caravan to Sherman's with plans to arrive approximately 10:30.

July event: Kent Browning's Private Museum

This museum is in Cerritos CA.

We'll have a run there on Sat. July 11th.

More information to come soon.

Another look at the "Third Space"

The air in May was unusually crisp, the kind that smelled of lilac and impending rain, but inside Carolyn's Cafe—the neighborhood's undisputed Third Space—the atmosphere was thick with the scent of roasted coffee and the low hum of relaxed conversation. It was a place neither home nor work, a "Great Good Place" as Dan Flanigan, would call it, that anchored the community in the spring.

Bob, a retired mechanic who now acted as the informal "host" of the 9:00 AM coffee crew, was already sitting in his usual corner chair. He didn't need to order; Dianna, the young barista with a penchant for 60s rock, set a black coffee and a blueberry scone on his table as soon as he walked in.

"It's buzzing early today," Dianna remarked, nodding toward the back tables.

Bob smiled. In May, the town seemed to wake up from its winter slumber. The Carolyn's offered a "neutral ground" where social status was irrelevant, and conversation was the main activity. At the long, community-shared oak table, Mr. Swift was debating with the new guy in town, Phil, who worked remotely and struggled to find his footing in the town until he stumbled upon this café. They were arguing about the zoning for the upcoming town park—a classic Third Space function, serving as a hub for civic discussion and informal democracy.

"You can't just pave over the dandelion patch!" Mr. George Swift insisted, his eyes playful but firm. "It's where the kids go play Soccer."

"I'm just saying, a walking path would make it more accessible," Phil countered, smiling. He hadn't known anyone in the town a month ago, but now, he was a regular.

Nearby, two local artists were sketching on napkins, and a young woman was engrossed in a book, taking advantage of the warm, quiet "cocoon" the space provided.

By noon, the café's glass doors were propped open, letting in the cool, blooming May air. The line between inside and outside blurred. People who had been absorbed in their work—the "second place"—dropped in to chat, laugh, and "take a break from all their worries," just like the classic neighborhood spots described.

As the sun began to dip behind the neighboring buildings, leaving a pink glow over the streets, the café grew cozy. The afternoon tea crowd mingled with those stopping for an early evening refreshment, exemplifying the "social solvent" of the Third Space.

Bob, still in his corner, observed the scene. It was in these simple moments of connection that the community's social vitality was kept alive. In the "merry month of May," in this little Third Space, nobody was alone.

Author: Unknown, however this is a "Corvettes West" story

Born to Beat Ferrari 🏎️

The original 1963 Grand Sport was secretly developed by Zora Arkus-Duntov to compete against Ferrari on the track—despite GM's racing ban at the time.

Lightweight Beast ↗

The original Grand Sport used fiberglass and aluminum to drastically cut weight—giving it a huge advantage on the racetrack.

Welcome one and all to the warmer days of the New Year. Now that it's getting warmer is the time to renew the donating. In addition to falls related to cold weather, there are still folks having surgery, having falls on stairs, and not to leave out car accidents. Hospitals are in constant need of whole blood as well as blood products.

When I first moved to California, I was looking for an area in which to donate. As it turned out, I found Lifestream Blood Bank and I have been donating there on a regular basis ever since. I also found CORVETTES WEST, a car club that interested me.

Once I started donating, it became a habit I enjoyed. The staff at the Lifestream Center were pleasant and the people who I helped were grateful and frequently thanked me for helping their family members in a time of need. I was shopping in Macy's when I heard someone calling my name. Turned out it was a Club Member who wanted to know if I would donate for his wife. Of course, the answer for me was "YES" I definitely would donate for his wife. Donating is very giving of self and a very satisfying thing to do. The medical Community needs us all to donate. Help save someone's life. The life may be a loved one
